HIT-RUN DEATH VERDICT OPEN

Finding At Coroner's Inquest Phrased To Permit Arrest Of Driver When Apprehended

The driver who killed Mrs. Cruzetta Dolores Petersen on the highway near Clarksville on October 27 and failed to stop and report the tragedy, will be called to an accounting if he can be apprehended.

This was indicated in the finding returned by a coroner's jury at a formal inquest held Friday night in which the jury found that Mrs. Petersen came to her death "by being struck by an automobile by parties unknown and under circumstances unknown."

The jury which reviewed the case also sat in inquests upon the death of Mrs. Flora Pierroz Armstrong and Roger Harrison Armstrong, husband and wife, the victims in a weekend domestic tragedy.

In the hit and run case, Mrs. Petersen was seen by several witnesses on the highway near Clarksville on Wednesday night, October 26 near midnight, and also in the hour and a half past midnight on the morning of October 27. She was enroute from Clarksville to Shingle. Some time between 1:30 o'clock and 3 o'clock Thursday morning, she was struck down by a car, evidently headed toward Polson, whose driver then turned about and fled the scene. The body was found by a passing motorist about 3 o'clock.

Authorities report that several clues have been checked in an attempt to identify the car and the driver, and that the investigation is continuing.

In the inquest into the deaths of Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, the circumstances were generally as previously reported and the jury found that Mrs. Armstrong was murdered October 29 by her husband who then committed suicide.

On the jury were C. S. Chalders, foreman, and John Purcell, J. F. Leonard, Charles J. Ruple, Wade H. Wilson, Chris Henningsen, William P. Wilkinson, Mack T. Burnett, W. A. Heuston, James Grace, J. A. Raffetto Jr., and J. H. Rhodes.

The inquests were conducted by Coroner A. J. Orelli at the courthouse.

Legion Attends Church Sunday

Armistice Day Service To Be Held At Federated Church; Auxiliary Joins

Members of El Dorado Post No. 119, American Legion, and their auxiliary, will attend Sunday morning services at the Federated Church as a part of their commemoration of Armistice Day.

Preparations for this phase of the observance were completed at the post's meeting this week and a section of the seats in the church auditorium will be reserved for the American Legion members.

The Legion will meet at the War Veterans' Memorial Building at 10:30 Sunday morning to proceed in a body to the church building.

Rev. Harold Morehouse, pastor of the church and chaplain of the Legion post, has announced the theme for his sermon as "Blessed are the Peace-makers." Music appropriate to the theme and the commemoration has been arranged.

NEW CAFE OPENS OVER WEEKEND IN PLACERVILLE

Preparations are being made for the opening this weekend of the Piedmont Cafe, on Main Street opposite the Raffles Garage. The business is owned by Emilio Mortara and will be under the management of Jack Roberts. The two have been for ten years associated as managers of the San Carlos Cafe, at Sacramento.

The building has been entirely remodeled and re-finished. The Piedmont will specialize in Italian dinners, according to their announcement.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Butts and son are here for a few days visit with the former's mother. The occasion of the visit was prompted by remembering Mrs. Butts' birthday, which was Thursday of this week.

HOUNDS RESCUE CAMPFIRE GIRLS—Lost for 24 hours in the Cascades wilds near Naches Pass, Wash., two campfire girls were found and rescued unhurt through the aid of Sheriff W. B. Severin's bloodhounds, Ramona and Rambler. The girls, Virginia Taylor and Margaret Sagar, are shown after their rescue. They wandered away from a hiking party of art schoolmates.

VOTERS TUESDAY TO ELECT 34 TO SENATE, NEW HOUSE OF 435

Upper Chamber Will Remain Democratic But Election Over Nation Will Demonstrate Whether New Deal Momentum Is Increasing Or Slacking

By LYLE C. WILSON

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, (UP)—The nation votes Tuesday in an off-year general election to determine whether the popular tide has turned against the New Deal or still is flowing with the currents of 1932-34-36.

Party squabbles among Democrats, and a rash of pension schemes are raising new political problems for the voters this year.

Pension fires are blazing in at least 10 states but are not necessarily out of control. From the rockbound Townsend planners of Maine to the "ham and eggs" of California, the drive to put the old folk on easy street is raising political dust.

Republicans will go into the election hopeful of beating back somewhat but still weakened by three successive election maulings. Democrats are divided into conservative and New Deal groups and party harmony was jarred considerably by the so-called Presidential primary purge.

Senators and Representatives elected Tuesday will sit in a new Congress, the 76th. All 435 house seats are at stake in this year's elections; 34 seats in the senate; and the governorship of 33 states.

Maine already has elected three Republican representatives and a Republican governor in a repetition of its 1936 loyalty to the G. O. P. All other national and gubernatorial contests and numberless contests for lesser office will take place the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November.

As the nation prepares to select new office holders or re-elect old ones, the political scorecard shows the following political alignments holding over from previous elections:

	Senate	House
Democrats	76	328
Republicans	15	88
Farmer-Laborites	2
Progressives	1
Independent	1
Vacancies	1

Auto Production For Week Sets New High

DETROIT, (UP)—Automobile production spurted to another new high for the year this week, and rapidly was closing the gap between 1937 and 1938 figures. Automotive News reported. The publication estimated the week's car and truck production at more than 83,800, compared with 74,900 last year and 88,086 in the corresponding period of a year ago.

5,000 COMBAT FOREST FIRES

Flames Burning In 5 States; Rangers Point To Lack Of Rain; Loss Mounting

By UNITED PRESS

Nearly 5,000 volunteers, WPA workers and CCC enrollees today were battling a series of forest fires in Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, West Virginia and Virginia, which already had destroyed thousands of dollars worth of timber and were endangering isolated homes and communities in their paths.

The fires were sweeping across sections of Wayne and Hamilton counties in southern Illinois, and through a dozen counties in the Cumberland mountain region in southeastern Kentucky. Scores of small brush and timber fires were reported across the Kentucky border in Virginia and West Virginia.

Forestry rangers said the areas were extremely susceptible to fire due to a lack of rain during the past few weeks. A strong southwest wind, which reached a velocity of 35 miles an hour in Southern Illinois early today, hampered firemen's efforts.

Conditions were most serious in southern Illinois and in south-eastern Kentucky where flames have destroyed more than $100,000 worth of timber and threatened coal mine tipples in Harlan, Bell, Leslie, Whitley, Jackson, Letcher and Pike counties.

Three hundred CCC workers were fighting fire along a three mile front northwest of Columbus Ind. The fire already had destroyed 1500 acres of timber. The firemen warned several families in the path of the flames to evacuate their homes.

It's little wonder that thousands of people were hysterical as a result of that radio broadcast last Sunday night, the way rumors travel.

Here are some rumors which have popped up again and again during the past week and deserve quashing:

The hit and run driver has been caught. Positively nothing to it up to this writing.

Two persons have confessed setting off dynamite blasts last Monday night. Positively nothing to it up to this writing.

The dynamite blasts which were set off wrecked at least one and perhaps two small structures which the late "Chic" Sales made famous. Positively nothing to it, as far as official investigation has determined.

And that rumor centering in Medford, Oregon, was checked Thursday afternoon and there is nothing to it.

So, that makes our score 100 per cent.

And the high school's Armistice Day football game, Principal B. E. Larson informs us, will start at 2 o'clock instead of 2:30 o'clock.

The members of the Senior Class have complimented us with tickets to the Senior Play, "Don't Ever Grow Up," which will be presented at the school auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock.

Pre-game "loping" on the Bear-Trojan battle tomorrow seems to indicate the Trojans are rather heavy favorites. One thing about the Trojans, when the second half begins to wane and they need points, they do open up and very often go to town. But we'll pick the Bears—and, since we're guessing, by two touchdowns.

BANCROFT SCORES FARLEY ADDRESS

Republican Senate Nominee Charges Bourbon Chairman With Jumping Party Lines

SAN FRANCISCO, (UP)—In a stinging attack on what he called "the greatest insult ever offered by a prominent public official," Philip Bancroft, nominee for United States Senate, last night charged Postmaster General James A. Farley with "double crossing his own party's nominee for one office."

Referring to Farley's endorsement of the California Democratic ticket and of Carl Kegley, who is conducting a write-in campaign for attorney general, Bancroft in a major campaign address declared:

"If California were a Czechoslovakia or a province of Italy or Germany, we might expect a Hitler or a Mussolini to tell us whom to elect as our representatives but I am confident the people of California are not yet ready to permit Mr. Farley to assume such a role."

In the address which was broadcast over a statewide radio hookup, Bancroft sharply assailed Farley for "practically ordering" California voters to elect Kegley after Kegley had lost the Democratic nomination to Earl Warren.

"It is worthy of note," Bancroft went on, "that the only two men whose election the Ham-and-Eggers are advocating in their official publication and in public addresses of their leaders are my opponent, Sheridan Downey, and this same Mr. Kegley. If it had not been for the continued advocacy of these men for the absurd Downey Ham and Egg plan, there would be no danger whatever that this plan, condemned by President Roosevelt and many of his cabinet members, would pass and threaten ruin to the state."

"I've no doubt but that Mr. Farley agrees with the President as to the outrageousness of this plan, as he is altogether too smart to be duped by it. But nevertheless for political expediency he has the affrontery to urge the voters of California to back the two men who are the plan's most powerful and effective mouthpieces."

Pointing to his own endorsements from "such progressive Californians as Senator Hiram Johnson and such widely known Democrats as Thomas M. Storke, the publisher," Bancroft leveled another attack at his opponent:

"If Mr. Downey is the choice of the real Democrats of California," he said, "why haven't the high-grade outstanding Democrats of the state who have thorough knowledge of both Mr. Downey and myself and our records—why, I ask, haven't they come out in support of Mr. Downey? Why has it been necessary to go clear across the continent and get men who know very little of local conditions but know a lot about dishing out patronage to try to force the voters of a great party in a great state to vote contrary to their honest, well-considered opinions?"

F. F. Moran, of the forest headquarters staff, was at Gerle Creek on Friday.

TROJANS PICKED TO BEAT BEARS

U. S. C. Enthusiasm Mounts On Strength Of Win Last Week Over Oregon Squad

By JAMES A. SULLIVAN

United Press Staff Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO, (UP)—History does a flip-flop into the past tomorrow when University of Southern California sends out a football team considered as having an even chance to win this year's Pacific Coast Conference championship.

Until a week ago, practically everybody living outside the city limits of Los Angeles was ready to concede California an easy win tomorrow and an easy march to another New Year's Day afternoon pastime in Pasadena's Rose Bowl.

Then the Trojans arose, with a 31-7 win over an Oregon team that at one time was considered a championship dark horse. On the same day California had a tough time subduing Oregon State, 13-7.

Two teams who used to be contenders will be playing on another field, with little at stake except team and coaching reputations. On one side will be University of Washington, still without a victory. On the other will be Stanford.

Farther north, Washington State and U. C. L. A. play the third of the three conference games on the program.

And on Sunday unbeaten Santa Clara tackles U. S. F.

Dynamite Load Burns On Truck

Mining Firm Loses Machine And Supplies In Fire On Volcanoville Road

A truck belonging to the Amerbar Mining Company and loaded with dynamite and caps, was completely destroyed by fire late Wednesday afternoon on the road about midway between Georgetown and the mine on the American River near Volcanoville.

According to word reaching here Friday morning, the truck driver, a man by the name of N. Beck, was on his way to the mine with a truck load of supplies, most of which were dynamite and caps, and the truck ran off the road and became stalled. While the driver was on his way to secure help at Volcanoville, the truck caught fire, and, without the knowledge of its dangerous shipment became a menace to passing motorists.

A car driven by a man named French, with other occupants, came upon the scene of the burning truck load of dynamite, but luckily did not get near enough to get seriously hurt, when the caps exploded. The dynamite was loaded at the front of the truck, the fire starting at that point, and was burned before the caps at the rear of the truck exploded.

The French car, returned to Volcanoville and notified the driver and representative of the mining company. The truck and shipment was a complete loss, it was reported.

WHITE TOMATO DEVELOPED AFTER EIGHT YEARS OF EXPERIMENTING

SAN JOSE, (UP)—Dr. Jonas Clark, 85 year old Gilroy physician and farmer has developed a white tomato after eight years of experimentation.

Dr. Clark described the tomato as "absolutely white, about the same shape as the ordinary tomato, but much sweeter."

He predicted a commercial use of the new tomato, which he produced by saving and replanting seeds from one particular vine of yellow tomatoes that were usually light in color.

The following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "No one can reasonably doubt that the purpose of this allegory—this second account in Genesis—is to depict the falsity of error and the effects of error. . . . Truth should, and does, drive error out of all selfhood. Truth is a two-edged sword, guarding and guiding. Truth places the cherub wisdom at the gate of understanding to note the proper guests. 7,800 HOLD HONORARY "TOMATO CANS" IN LOS ANGELES
 LOS ANGELES. (UP) — The sun never sets on police badges of the Los Angeles police department, and Mayor Fletcher Bowron would like to see those "buzzers" kept a little more close to home.
 Upon taking office following the recall of former Mayor Frank L. Shaw, Bowron demanded a list of some 7,800 honorary bearers of police badges with the idea of recalling them all and issuing a new restricted type of identification.

He got part of his list today. In addition to scores of film players, ranging from Shirley Temple and Bill Robinson to Bela Lugosi and Phil Regan, and from pants manufacturers, wrestlers and chiropractors, his honor found among the proud owners of what are jauntily called "tomato cans," the following:

Maharaja Maharajahdihaja Holkar Boinadur of Indore; Sir William Adolph of London. Gen. Jose Mijares Palencia of Mexico City. Mohammed Amin Khan of Indore; Gen. Tirso Hernandez of the Mexican army; Plutarco Elias Calles Jr., minister of communications of Mexico and the French and British consuls.

Last Call For Your Vote

Since September, we have been appealing to you, the voters, to defeat proposition 20, the single tax, at the November 8th election.

We have told you of its many evils. To refresh your memory, here is what it threatens to do:

- Close Schools
- Take Homes
- End Relief
- Panic Business
- Increase Prices
- Lower Wages
- Add Unemployment
- Endanger Savings
- Halt Government

We can make these statements for history of past attempts to make land carry the entire burden has resulted in all these things happening.

Don't be misled by the sales tax repeal disguise of this measure. It is not a sales tax repeal initiative alone for a single tax... the most destructive tax ever devised... would be substituted. You don't want that.

LOOK CLOSELY and you will recognize Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, Ralph Bellamy and Luella Gear, all principals in RKO Radio's "Care-free" with music by Irving Berlin. Just now they are seen taking a musical bicycle ride. The picture opens Sunday at the Empire.

COMEDY, WESTERN TOP SATURDAY BILL, "CAREFREE" SUNDAY

"The Missing Guest," something new in the treatment of the crime-mystery story, will make you laugh, and "Call of the Rockies" with Charles Starrett, will provide plenty of red-blooded action on the Saturday bill at the Empire theater.

The second section of the weekend program opens Sunday with "Care-free," featuring again Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers in a tuneful musical romance for which Irving Berlin has designed the songs.

MAT'S LIFE LONG

BURBANK, (U.P.)—A 17-year-old pet cat of a local apothecary died here of dropsy. The cat's utility during its long span of life had consisted of chasing away stray dogs. By a daily balanced diet of ice cream and beefsteak, the druggist had been able to maintain its weight for years at 18 pounds.

ABBEY FAILS TO YIELD LIGHT ON LITERARY CONTROVERSY

LONDON, (U.P.)—They opened the wrong grave in the poet's corner of Westminster Abbey—and so the historic Shakespeare literary mystery remains unsolved.

The attempt to prove, by digging into the tomb of poet Edmund Spenser, that Francis Bacon was the real author of William Shakespeare's dramas ended suddenly when experts of the Baconian society decided that they had dug into the wrong tomb.

As a result, they abandoned their search for an original Shakespeare manuscript that might have solved the 170 year old dispute, due to the opposition to the dean of Westminster Abbey to further excavations.

Warren Benson was in town Friday from Summit.

FARMER GETS PROBATION AND FREE RIDE BACK HOME

MACON, Ga., (U.P.)—George W. Pike, who walked 73 miles to court and then couldn't stand before the judge because of swollen feet, was rewarded with a suspended sentence.

Pike, 50 year old farmer, was charged with violating the federal whiskey statute. He left his home near Thomaston on foot last Sunday and reached Macon yesterday.

His feet were so swollen he could not put on his shoes to appear in court, and was allowed to enter a plea of guilty from his cell. He was placed on probation for two years.

A federal tax agent drove Pike, barefoot, back home.
